

Surfsong European Surfweek

"Let's go surfing on the water, thanks to Recreas, Special surfing, special waves, for you and me and everyone!"

"See them looking in my direction,
I tumble as I fall.
Knowing things,
not feelings things, very strange.
I've just begun to laugh and
I don't know where it ends.
Staring in the distance, staring in my eyes,
staring along"

Jampampam....

"My heart in overdrive,
I'm thinking about you.
You and me with colours and flavours,
why isn't it always easy.
You came by and I tumble along
you don't know what to say and maybe it's wrong.
I couldn't see the object,
I didn't know where to look.
Is it always like this"
